GIST OF THE CASE & MODUS OPERANDI:-

The accused persons 1) Mohd Muzammil @ Mujju, R/o Tadbun, (occupation: decoration work at weddings) 2) Syed Abrar, R/o Jahanuma (occupation: Lorry Mechanic) are born and brought up from Hyderabad and they are common friends. With desires to lead a lavish life and finding their earnings insufficient, the two planned to commit snatching of cell phones by terrorizing the road passersby during late night hours in isolated areas. To this end, they also stole one Bajaj Pulser N.S. 200 motor cycle (Pertains to Cr. No. 417/2024, U/s 379 IPC of LB Nagar PS, Dt 01.04.2024) and using this vehicle as conveyance they started snatching mobile phones under the limits of Bandlaguda, Falaknuma, Bahadurpura, Mangalhat Police Stations of Hyderabad Police Commissionerate and Hayath Nagar PS of Rachakonda Police Commissionerate. Further, the accused Muzammil @ Mujju and Syed Abrar are selling the stolen smart phones to one Mohd Saleem (Receiver) to illegally earn easy money. From this lead, other accused receivers and dealers of stolen property as detailed above were also apprehended and recovery of the stolen smart phones was completed. Some of these accused (Mohd Shafi @Bablu) have shops located in Jagdish Market, Abids where these phones are being purchased at low prices by Sudanese national Khalid Abdelbagi Mohamed Albadwi and his associates and the same are being exported illegally via sea route to Sudan, where they are re-selling these mobile phones for a huge profit. Necessary legal action shall be taken up against the foreign nationals for indulging in illegal activities. Also, Mobile repair shop was being run at Jagdish Market wherein one accused J. Yelamanda Reddy was receiving stolen iPhone mobiles and using its parts for repairing the iPhones of the customers and earning huge profits illegally.
