CONDITIONS

1. (a) This licence is granted subject to all the provisions of the Arms Act, 1959 and of the Arms Rules, 1962.

(b) This licence entitles the licensee to fabricate components and parts of fire-arms and ammunition for the purpose of 5(repair of fire-arms or conversion or repair of ) ammunition of the categories shown in Col. 4 but does not entitle him to manufacture such components or parts for the purpose of, or utilized for assembling into complete arms or ammunition.

(c ) This licence does not entitle the dealer to take any arms or ammunition for testing to a testing range or other place without a permit for the purpose, or to prove any fire-arms.

(d) This licence is valid only so long as he carries on the trade or business, in the premises shown in Col. 3 thereof, and will ipso facto lapse if the business is discontinued for a continuous period exceeding six months.

2. The licensee shall maintain a register of all fire-arms and ammunition in stock and of all sales, showing the particulars in such forms as may be prescribed by the Central Government for the purpose.

3. He shall make available for inspection of his stock and his registers on the demand of any Magistrate or any police officer of a rank not below that of Inspector, or, if the Central Government so directs, of Sub-Inspector.

4. (1) He shall affix on a conspicuous part of his place of business, factory or shop a signboard on which shall be painted in large letters in English/Hindi and in the language of the district his name and the words "Licensed to convert/repair/test (other than proof-test)/sell/transfer arms and ammunition."

(2) He shall also affix in his place of business, factory or shop a copy of Sec. 36 of the Act, either in English/Hindi or in the language of the district.

5. He shall not convert an imitation fire-arm into a fire-arm or shorten a fire-arm on the strength of this licence.

1(5-a. Where a licence is granted for conversion of ammunition, it shall not entitle the licensee to convert blank cartridges or any ammunition, having no projectile into single/multiple projectile ammunition or to load or re-load any ammunition.)

6. He shall not sell the arms or ammunition covered by the licence, elsewhere than at the place of business, factory or shop specified in Col. 3.

7. He shall not keep Government arms or ammunition unless he is specially authorized in this behalf by the Central Government.

Explanation – For the purposes of this condition

(a) " Government arms" means a fire-arm or other weapon which is the property of the Government : and

(b) "Government ammunition" means ammunition manufactured in any Government factory prepared for and supplied to Government other than such ammunition as may be released by Government for civilian use.

8. He shall, at the time of sale or transfer of any arms or ammunition to a person holding a licence in Form III, Form IV, Form V, Form VII or Form VIII, endorse on the licence –

(a) the name, description and residence of the person who takes delivery of the articles sold or transferred.

(b) the nature and quantity of the articles sold or transferred, and

© the date of sale or transfer,

And shall sign the endorsement and affix his seal.

9. He shall at the time of sale or transfer of a weapon, enter in his register the number and other identification marks, if any stamped on the weapon at the time of manufacture or otherwise.

10. He shall give information of all sales or transfers of arms and ammunition, to such person and in such manner as the Central Government may direct.

11. He shall not sell or transfer ammunition to any person licensed to possess or carry arms, without his first obtaining a written certificate from such person to the effect that, with the quantity of ammunition in his possession shall not exceed the maximum quantity which he is entitled to possess at any one time or his total allowance for the year.

Provided that he shall not, in any case, sell or transfer to any person any quantity of ammunition in excess of the maximum which may be fixed by the Central Government for such period or which is endorsed on such person's licence.

12. He shall not sell arms and ammunition to an officer, non-commissioned officer or soldier of the armed forces of the Union, unless such person produces a written pass or permit signed by his Commanding Officer, and then only to the extent and on the conditions specified in such pass or permit.

13. Where the licence is granted in and for any local area in West Bengal or Assam, the licensee shall not sell arms or ammunition, without a special permit from a Magistrate, to any member of hill-tribe to which the Central Government may, from time to time, by notification, apply this condition.

14. The licensee shall forthwith give information at the nearest police station of the loss or theft of any arms or ammunition covered by the licence.

1(15. Subject to the other conditions contained herein, no licensee shall, without reasonable cause, refuse to sell arms or ammunition to any person, who is entitled to purchase or acquire such arms or ammunition under the provisions of the Arms Act 1959 or the Arms Rules, 1962.

Explanation.- The possibility or expectation of the seller obtaining a higher price at a later date or the refusal by a person to purchase or acquire arms or ammunition partly of a description demanded by him and partly of a different description suggested by the licensee, shall not be deemed to be a reasonable cause for the purpose of this condition.)

1(16. The conversion into explosives of sulphur in admixture with chlorates shall be permitted for the following purposes only (and for no other purposes):

- (i) In small quantities for scientific purposes: or
- (ii) For the purposes of manufacturing heads of matches : or
- (iii) For use in toy amerces (paper caps for toy pistols).)
