C.C.S. POLICE ARRESTED KAPIL RAJENDRA KUMAR BAHETI @ KAPIL OF PUNE, MAHARASHTRA STATE INVOLVED IN EXTORTION AND CHEATING TO A TUNE OF RS.3.60 CRORES

(Crime No. 25/2020 U/Sec. 384, 420, 386, 388 R/W 120(b) IPC of CCS, DD, Hyderabad.)

The accused Kapil Rajendra Kumar Baheti @ Kapil of Pune, Maharashtra is involved in Explosives Manufacturing and Trading business. He is acquainted with the complainant Sri A. Vijay Kumar and his brother Sri A. Raj Kumar of Hyderabad who are also involved in Explosives business with a valid license. Mr. Raj Kumar was arrested by RGI Police Station, Cyberabad vide Cr.No. 420/2019 U/Sec. 420 IPC, Sec. 5 of E.S. Act, for transporting of 10 tonnes of Ammonia without permission. Taking the advantage the accused assured that he would make Raj Kumar to come out from the case and demanded Rs.1.00 crore to give to police officials. Believing the same the complainant party had given Rs.60.00 lakhs through a Hawala Agent as per the directions of accused Kapil. For closing the case the accused further demanded Rs.2.00 crores in order to manage the senior police officers in State. Due to fear, the complainant party arranged Rs.1.50 Crores to him on different dates to be paid to Kapil for his claim of paying senior police officers. However the complainant in this case could only come out after getting regular bail. Due to fear of further cases as told by the accused after releasing from the jail Mr. Raj Kumar also transferred an amount of Rs.20.00 lakhs and Rs.15.00 lakhs to the accused through the bank transfer.

Further, on 29-10-2019 the SOT Police also raided the godown belonging to the complainant’s party at Bhongiri and registered a case under explosive substances act and on the same day a consignment lorry of the complainant’s party intercepted by Raipur Police in Chhattisgarh State. The accused took advantage of the development and by putting the complainant in fear of severe repercussions the accused Kapil demanded an amount of Rs.35.00 lakhs and Rs.25.00 lakhs from complainant in order to come out of the above two cases. Believing the same, the complainant had given Rs.35.00 lakhs to accused and later he came to know that Kapil has not helped in any way in the above cases and avoided the payment of remaing Rs.25.00 lakhs.

The complainant company regularly sends approved consignments to Bihar and other states. The accused threatened the complainant that the ATS Police of Bihar State were enquiring about their explosives business and may take action at any time under stringent laws. The accused demanded Rs.1.00 crores from them by threatening that ATS Bihar, Patna would not book the case on nonpayment of the amount. The accused had taken the complainant to meet senior officers of Bihar ATS and some politicians on the pretext that he would help the complainant. After that the accused had taken Rs.60.00 lakhs from them through Hawala. When the complainant party came to know the real intention of the accused, he stopped the payment of balance amount. The accused threatened them that if the balance amount is not arranged, he will see to it that cases are booked under Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, and other stringent laws against them with his influence. Over all the accused Kapil has extorted an amount of nearly Rs.3.60 Crores from the complainant and his brother in the guise of managing the higher police officials for closing the cases and also not registering the cases under UAPA and other Act.

Accused person is having directorship in Kapil sons trading business-Pune, Rahul Agency – Dhule of Maharashtra, Arun Murugan Explosives- Karur of Tamilnadu, Laxmi Traders- Pali of Rajasthan and Rajasthan Explosives & Chemical Ltd- Dholpur of Rajasthan.

A special team has been deputed to Pune of Maharashtra State and they arrested the accused on 24-08-2020 and brought him to Central Crime Station, Hyderabad from Pune.

The above accused is being produced before the Hon’ble XII ACMM Court, Hyderabad and remanded to judicial custody.
The case is being investigated by Sri Ch. Kushalkar, Asst. Commissioner of Police, WCO Team VII, CCS, DD, Hyderabad with the assistance SIs Sri Nippun, Sri G. Mallesh and ASI Sri B. Anil Kumar under the direct supervision of Sri K. Sreenivas Reddy, ACP Division-E, CCS, Hyderabad and Sri N. Mahender, Addl. D.C.P. (EOW), CCS, D.D., Hyderabad.
